DC REFERS is an online directory of lawyers and mediators who are willing to represent clients of modest-means for a reduced fee.

OUR GOAL is to increase access to justice in the District of Columbia by bridging the justice gap for moderate-income individuals, families, and businesses by building a robust community of lawyers who provide high-quality representation at below-market rates. The need for affordable legal and mediation services is enormous. That's why we are seeking more lawyers to serve on the DC Refers panel.

> I wanted to make a difference in the world, and many people who desperately need my services cannot afford the traditional representation model.
